

6516206484.txt

I think it is critical that XM radio be allowed to provide much needed services such a weather and traffic via Satellite. As a person that travlels extensively, it enables me to get up to date information without spending time scanning through local stations.

In addition, I think it is an infringement on our First Amendment rights to limit such services.